

THINGS TO DO IN LIVERPOOL

There are many attractions to explore in the City of Liverpool, below are just a few ideas!

More attractions can be found on the Visit Liverpool website.

Royal Albert Dock

The Royal Albert Dock is one of Liverpool's most famous and vibrant attractions. Home to a mix of museums, galleries, restaurants, and shops, it offers something for all ages. Set against a stunning historic waterfront, the dock is the perfect place to explore the city's maritime heritage, enjoy great food, and take in breathtaking views of the River Mersey.

The Royal Liver Building

The Royal Liver Building is one of Liverpool's most celebrated landmarks and a symbol of the city's rich heritage. Standing proudly on the waterfront, it is famous for its legendary Liver Birds and striking architecture. Visitors can enjoy guided tours that explore its history and take in breathtaking views of Liverpool and the River Mersey from the top.

Mersey Ferries

Mersey Ferries are one of Liverpool's most iconic attractions, offering more than just a journey across the River Mersey. The famous ferry cruise provides stunning views of the city skyline and historic waterfront, while bringing to life Liverpool's rich maritime and musical heritage. A ride on the Mersey Ferry is a must-do experience and a true symbol of the city.

Liverpool Anglican Cathedral

Liverpool Cathedral is the largest cathedral and religious building in Britain. The cathedral is based on a design by Giles Gilbert Scott, only finished construction in 1978. The total external length of the building, including the Lady Chapel, is 207 yards making it the longest cathedral in the world; With a height of 331 feet it is also one of the world's tallest Cathedral's. The building is very impressive and has a wonderful atmosphere – a must see.

jane.heppenstall@vasgbi.com

0114 299 5922

Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral

Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral is one of the city's most striking and distinctive buildings. Known for its circular design and stunning stained-glass lantern, the cathedral offers a peaceful space for reflection as well as beautiful views across the city. Its modern architecture and rich spiritual atmosphere make it a must-see attraction for visitors to Liverpool.

St George's Hall

St George's Hall is one of Liverpool's grandest and most impressive historic buildings. Renowned for its magnificent neoclassical architecture, it hosts concerts, exhibitions, and events throughout the year. Located in the heart of the city, the hall stands as a powerful symbol of Liverpool's cultural and civic heritage and is a must-visit attraction for anyone exploring the city.

The Walker Art Gallery

The Walker Art Gallery is one of Liverpool's finest cultural attractions and a must-visit for art lovers. It houses an impressive collection of paintings, sculptures, and decorative art, ranging from Renaissance masterpieces to contemporary works. With free entry and exhibitions to suit all ages, the gallery offers an inspiring and welcoming experience in the heart of the city.

Sefton Park

Sefton Park is one of Liverpool's most beautiful and popular green spaces. Covering 235 acres, it offers scenic lakes, wide open lawns, and the stunning Victorian Palm House at its heart. Perfect for walking, relaxation, and events throughout the year, the park provides a peaceful escape just minutes from the city centre.

jane.heppenstall@vasgbi.com
0114 299 5922

Food and Drink

Art School

ocated on Sugnall Street in Liverpool's Georgian Quarter, you can find us based inside the stunning lantern room of the Victorian 1888 'Home for Destitute Children' building, making for a bright and naturally lit dining space.

CLICK HERE

La Lunya

Part deli, part bar, part restaurant, 100% obsessed with Catalan and Spanish food. Since 2010, we've been bringing the bold flavours of Spain's most food-proud region to the heart of Liverpool One.

CLICK HERE

Mowgil

Built in 2014, our Bold Street restaurant is the original Mowgli. One of our smaller homes, she is quaint, and she is a real Indian home kitchen. We offer a fresh, spirited take on traditional South Asian recipes, trading formal dining for shared tables, and the glow of our very first fairy-lit trees.

CLICK HERE

Cowshed

An array of beef preparations served with classic & creative sides & drinks in a contemporary space.

CLICK HERE

Duke Street Market

At Duke Street Market, we're all about bringing top-quality service and exceptional produce to the table, all served up in our beautifully restored 100-year-old warehouse.

CLICK HERE

jane.heppenstall@vasgbi.com
0114 299 5922